FROM THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

It is our pleasure to invite you for the WASP Asia Pacific Hybrid Congress, 2021 to be held at New Delhi on 16th-18th September 2021. In the last one year, the world all over has been affected by an unprecedented human crisis caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, which also led to a halt of many scientific meetings, though it opened a new avenue of virtual programs.

The World Association of Social Psychiatry (WASP) has decided to organize this international meeting in a hybrid mode.

The theme of the Congress has been chosen as "Innovations in Social Psychiatry Across the World", considering how the social psychiatry has helped in dealing with the mental health issues in the background of the Covid-19 pandemic and has provided opportunity to integrate its principles into the "rethink" of mental healthcare.

The Congress will have plenary sessions, symposiums, panel discussions, workshops, oral presentations, and poster sessions.

We promise you highly scientifically stimulating program with full opportunities of interactions. This congress aims to create a conducive environment for exchange of ideas and better collaboration between mental health professionals and specialists in order to develop better mental health interventions informed by innovations in social psychiatry.

We are planning to organize the Congress in a hybrid mode so that the delegates from all around the world can attend the meeting. Those who find it convenient to attend in a physical mode are most welcome. The local organizing committee will be happy to provide all possible assistance.

We will be sharing more details shortly.

Looking forward to see you in the WASP Asia Pacific Hybrid Congress 2021.

ABOUT DELHI

Delhi, officially the National Capital Territory of Delhi, is the capital territory of India. Delhi has been continuously inhabited since the 6th century BC. Through most of its history, Delhi has served as a capital of various kingdoms and empires. It has been rebuilt several times, particularly during the medieval period. Modern Delhi is a cluster of a number of cities spread across the metropolitan region.

It has a population of about 16.3 million, making it the second most populous city and second most populous urban agglomeration in India. Such is the nature of urban expansion in Delhi that its growth has expanded beyond the NCT to incorporate towns in neighbouring states and at its largest extent can count a population of about 25 million residents as of 2014.

The NCT and its urban region have been given the special status of National Capital Region (NCR) under the Constitution of India's 69th Amendment Act of 1991. The NCR includes the neighbouring cities of Faridabad, Gurgaon, Noida, Ghaziabad, Neharpar (Greater Faridabad), Greater Noida, Bahadurgarh, Sonapat, Panipat, Karnal, Rohtak, Bhiwani, Rewari, Baghpat, Meerut, Alwar, Bharatpur and other nearby towns.

ATTRACTIONS

Red Fort - A 17th century fort complex, constructed in the walled city of Old Delhi, it dates from the very peak of Mughal Power. Built by the Mughal Emperor, Shahjahan in 1648. Designated as the UNESCO World heritage site, the planning and aesthetics of this Fort represent the zenith of Mughal creativity which prevailed during the reign of Emperor Shah Jahan.

Qutub Minar - A fine example of early Afghan architecture. It was constructed in 1193 as a symbol of victory. It is surrounded by several other ancient and medieval structures and ruins, collectively known as the Qutub complex.

ABOUT DELHI

Humayun's Tomb - Declared as UNESCO world heritage site, it was commissioned in 1562 AD by the Mughal Ruler, Humayun's grieving widow. It was the first mature example of Mughal architecture and the first structure to use red sandstone at such a scale.

India Gate - Situated in the heart of New Delhi, the India Gate was designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens, inspired by the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. It was built in 1931. Originally known as the All India War Memorial, it is a prominent landmark in Delhi and commemorates the 90,000 soldiers of the Indian Army who lost their lives while fighting for the Indian Empire in World War I and the Third Anglo-Afghan War.

The Bahai House of Worship - Popularly known as the Lotus Temple due to its flower-like shape. It was completed in 1986. It has won numerous architectural awards and has been featured in hundreds of newspaper and magazine articles.

Delhi Akshardham or Swaminarayan Akshardham - The complex displays millennia of traditional Indian and Hindu culture, spirituality, and architecture. The temple, which attracts approximately 70 percent of all tourists who visit Delhi is designed in accordance with ancient Vedic text known as the Sthapatya Shastra and is a blend of architectural styles from across India.
